1981 Dedication — Mrs. Barbara Belisle

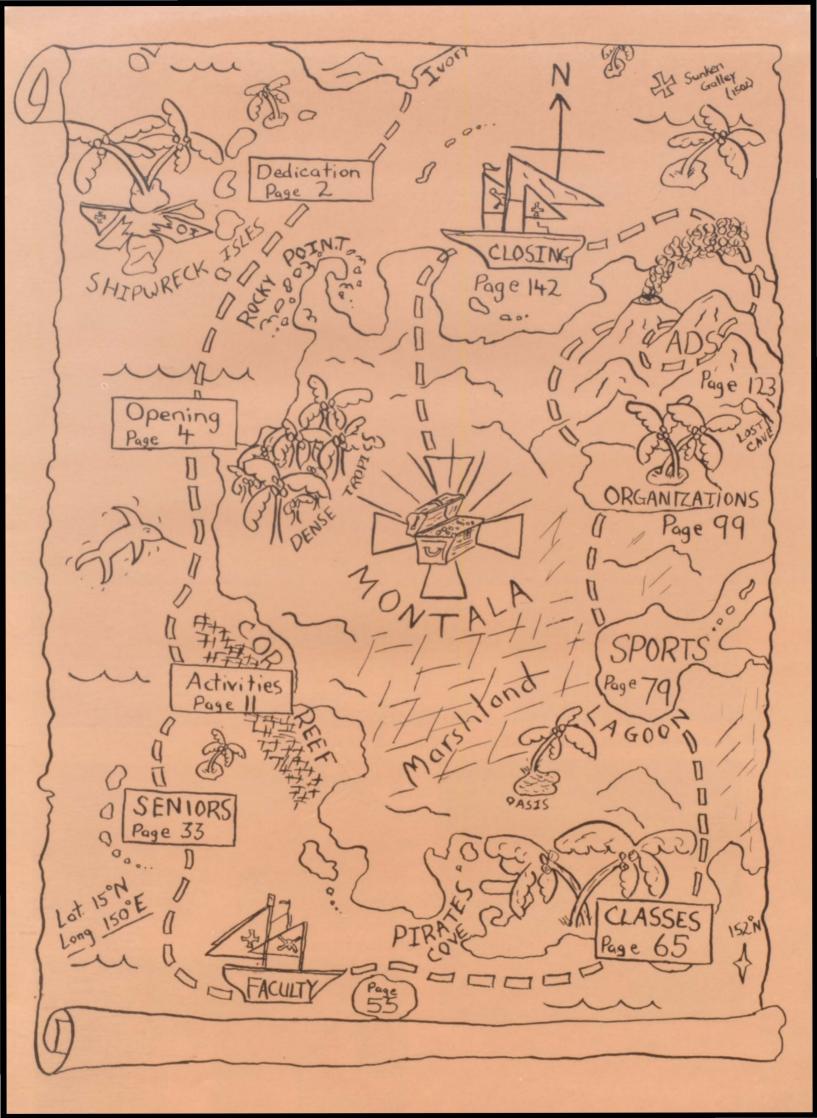

The Montala staff is proud to dedicate the 1981 yearbook to Mrs. Barbara Belisle. As an English teacher, she demonstrates a love for language and a helpful, patient nature. As a speech instructor she interests students in debate, speech making, and more effective communication. As drama club sponsor, she provides students with a chance to express themselves and learn about theatre arts firsthand. These are just a few of the ways Mrs. Belisle has enriched MHSers' lives.

More importantly, she has influenced MHS students with her pleasant personality. She is an inspiration to everyone and being a student under Mrs. Belisle means being challenged to excel, to learn, and to grow.

A Key to Treasure

Take it and unlock your memories,

Free them to dance in your head. A photo is a map

Study it and trace your thoughts.

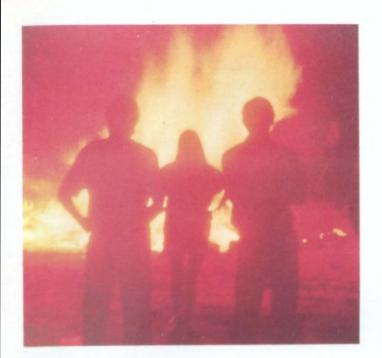

One photograph has as many meanings as it has viewers.

Each is accurate

Some of us know the stories behind the smiles.

Frozen on each page are the days
we spent in school
Only looking can melt them
Only remembering can make them flow
Here forever are locked your memories —
Turn the pages and they're free again.

Captured Moments

This year was full of memorable events. It included a Homecoming bonfire, pep rallies, the arrival of the seniors' portraits, and a special time for the juniors to order class rings.

And, of course, the year contained study and tests along with a mock wedding, a holiday assembly, and a Christmas play. Club parties were also a part of 1980-1981.

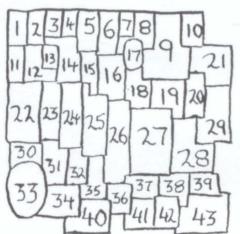

Memories Go on and on . . .

Juniors Order Class Rings

Pep Rallies

MHSers showed their spirit at the football pep rallies. The cheerleaders led the cheers and had skits to fire up everybody. The band played at each pep rally. All of this was to get the Bulldogs ready for the games on Friday nights.

On Valentine's Day many juniors passed out valentine's which had been turned in during the week. Using the name of "Cupid's Helpers" the group delivered the valentines during homeroom.

The Montevallo High School Troubadors participated in the parade for the Fire Prevention Week.

The group marched down Main Street with the fire trucks.

Montala Staff

The year has come,
The year has gone,
All that is left to us
Are the memories.
So take this key to the past,
Relock the chest,
But do look in again.

ON

Reminiscing

1981 has been a year full of memories. Many things have happened to make this year different from all the others. Some of these are: a new principal, a double-overtime homecoming football victory, a mock presidential election, a band trip to Florida, College-Career Day, and draft registration. Others are the plays — The Forgotten Gift and Tell Me That You Love Me, Junie Moon, Steve and Cyndi's "wedding," a basketball upset over Vincent, release of the Iranian hostages, the resource class, girls basketball area champions, voting registration, and a "Sail-On" Homecoming.

The year also meant a combined athletic banquet, sub-area baseball champs, the attempted assination of Reagan, the "Libyan" delegation at the UN, and the prom at the Hyatt House. This book is a treasure chest full of these memories.
